The view is worth the drive

★★★★★ 5 of 5

This is a beautiful property with an incredible window and a world class view of the ocean past the dunes. It is well appointed with nice furniture, comfortable beds, toys and well equipped kitchen. My family and I had a wonderful weekend and hopefully will return soon,

Great Escape

★★★★☆ 4 of 5

The view from this house is incredible! The beds and linens were all comfortable. The location was fantastic for access to Morro Bay, San Luis Obispo, Paseo Robles. Grocery Store and Restaurants were nearby. Easy beach access. The kitchen appliances are first rate, my only complaint is the knives available - they are so bad that they are dangerous to use and really need to be replaced. The pots and pans are also a bit on the thin side as well. If the owners could upgrade these it would make a difference. For those that plan to prepare meals there are not a lot of spices available - even the basic ones. What I bought - I left - but this would be a nice addition for future renters. Master bathroom was utterly fantastic but two remaining bathrooms could use an upgrade. For future renters I may suggest bringing the following: Small Bars of Soap for the Bathroom (none was provided), Laundry Detergent if you plan on doing several loads (A small amount of starter laundry detergent was provided), Spices, Cooking Oils if you plan to cook. Fridge was large and clean. There were enough utensils and dishes (although the plastic dishes should be thrown out by the owner but the rest of the dishes were fine). The location and views made this house a winner!

beautiful home with lots of amenities to make you feel at home. Good location, just a short walk to the nice beach, you have to go down a path. Very close to the town of Morro Bay with cute little shops and a lot of restaurants and a lot of things to do and see. Extremely good customer service by the owner.

Perfect location for our family trip

★★★★★ 5 of 5

My sister and I recently lost our father and the purpose of the trip was to celebrate his life. We spent a lot of our childhood in Morro Bay and it was the perfect place to stay for us. The house has amazing views, a really nice sound system throughout the house, a nicely stocked kitchen and all the bedrooms had comfortable beds for all to sleep. We all like to cook and we cooked most meals at the house. My pet peeve with rentals is the lack of sharp knives and the only knives they had were serrated and not very sharp, but this didn't keep us from doing some great cooking. The location is very convenient for trips to Morro Bay, Cayucos and Cambria. We had a wonderful time and hope to return again in the near future.

Stunning location and great house

★★★★★ 5 of 5

My wife and I and two friends stayed here for a long weekend. I don't think you could find a more beautiful environment. The house is situated right at the back of a pristine set of sand dunes that are heavily vegetated. There is an endangered bird that nests in the area so no one is trampling across the dunes so the area is quiet as well. The house is very nicely appointed and it has lots of spaces to relax with great views. There is a nice sound system (a bit complicated) a nice fireplace and comfy furniture. The beach has lots of birds, sand dollars etc, nice to walk. The neighborhood is very nice and well situated for getting around. We rented bikes in town which was useful.

Fantastic House & GREAT Location!!

★★★★★ 5 of 5

We had the BEST time at this gorgeous house and unbelievable view. SO very relaxing and the area is really awesome. Morro Bay is so fun!! The amenities of the home and the small and quaint area of Morro Bay gave us a great vacation. Thank you so much for such a great place and comfortable home. Top Notch residence that we will lease again!!

Our family stay at this home in Morro Bay couldn't have been more memorable. From the oldest person, me at 72, to my grandson at 4, and all ages in between, the house did not disappoint. The home has obviously been highly renovated with an expansive curved front window facing the beach. With an incredible 180 degree beachfront view from Morro Rock to the south, to the small town of Cayucus to the north, the visual design was well thought out.

The layout of the house was designed with privacy in mind. This is especially true in private suite that is accessed across the central covered courtyard.

The beach is accessed by simply using an easy well marked sand path (of maybe 200 feet) through some low sand dunes.

Mornings, during our stay, were cool and perfect for walking on the firm flat beach. The early afternoon were warm more suited for kids.

I'm a California coast native and Morro Bay has always been one of my favorite areas. It's quiet and peaceful, however, only a fifteen minute drive to the more energetic college town of San Luis Obispo with access to tons of restaurants.

The owners were cordial and always a phone call away to help with any questions. They were quick to help retrieve an item that my wife left in the house and discovered only when we got home. They also supplied an "instruction manual" for the house outlining everything from the operation of the dishwasher to the state of the art home sound system.

My wife and I plan on renting the home for our 25th anniversary....a big house for two people, but worth it.

Rent the home, you won't be sorry!

Beautiful Home with a great ocean view inclusive of Morro Bay Rock! Bay windows in living area provide relaxing view in a nice quiet area. Very spacious for 8 guests. Design provides for privacy and separate entrance for bedroom areas. Clean and well kept. Couple of suggestions for improvement: Dishes and silverware good but pots and pans inexpensive and difficult to cook with. Trash containers not adequate for size of home. They were full when we arrived. We made wonderful memories and enjoyed our stay very very much.

My husband and I were endlessly captivated by the views of Morro Bay and the Pacific from the living room and patio of this beautiful house. The gas fireplace gave the living room a cozy atmosphere. The modern kitchen and large dining area were perfect for our family gathering. The bedrooms were most comfortable and private. This house offered us all the conveniences of home.

Views of the beach and Morro Rock are spectacular from this property located in a quiet, residential neighborhood. Cannot wait until we come back!

Incredible Beachfront Location + Sweeping Views

★★★★★ 5 of 5

My husband and I recently stayed in this beautiful home for a family celebration (8 people total) and found it to be equal parts homey, relaxing and simply gorgeous. The owners have gone out of their way to equip the home with new beds, ample bedding, towels and cookware. The kitchen is equipped with top-of-the-line restaurant-quality appliances that enabled us to cook several large family-style meals there for our group.

The views from both the kitchen and living rooms are mesmerizing and we enjoyed having cocktails on the outdoor patio every afternoon. Located in a quiet neighborhood cul-de-sac, we also felt very safe there, and appreciated having a grocery store within a five minute drive. You can walk to the beach within minutes via a public access path from the home. The town of Morro Bay is an easy 10 minute drive away with funky shops and beachfront restaurants.

Excellent choice for a beachfront gathering on the Central Coast.
